ore of James Brook's Union-saving sday evening land the true Union-loving is elected, and pledging themselves to ens-tain whatever President may be elected in 1860, so long as he confines himself to a metitational elechange of his duties. This was more than the "Union-Savers" had bar-gained for. They tried to table the "fire-brand" resolution, but the people voted down the motion, and then adopted the resolution by an everwhelming majority. The people of the North are sound on the Union question.

ANOTHER "INSURBECTION." whites and pegroes. The account comes from Warsaw, the county seat of Benton county, which must be at least thirty miles from the scene of the reported insurrection far enough for the story to have grown greatly while making the distance. Bolivar is the county seat of Polk county, and at the date of the last State census contained to the dispatch that no lives were lost, and that the only person reported hurt is a negro. Not a very formidable inserrection,

PURE DEMOCRACY.

This much is to be said to the credit of Mr.

Buchapan: He faces the music like a man; he which may mean one thing in one latitude and quite a different thing in another; but boldly, in the face of the whole nation, he expounds and domination, and as boldly and without flinching he subscribes to it. Whoever will read his Message can have no misconception of what Democracy is in the year of grace 1860. Hateful as it is, he makes no attempt to of the Message is the same that is preached every day in both houses of Congress; it is the same that is recognized throughout the South; the same that will be ndorsed at Charleston in April next; and it s the same that masks i self in a few of the Northwestern States behind such high-soundly legislation. In the plain, blunt Saxon more nor no less than the right "of every citizen to take his property of any kind, includlonging equally to all the States of the con"federacy, and to have it protected there un-der the federal constitution. Neither Conpower has any authority to annul or impair this vested right. The supreme judicial ribunal of the country, which is a co-ordinate branch of the government, has sanctioned and "affirmed these principles of constitutional law.

"Had it been decided that either Congress or "to annul or impair the right to property in slaves, the evil would be intolerable. In the "latter event, these would be a struggle for a "at each successive election, and the sacred "rights of property held under the Federal stitution, would depend for the time being on the result. Thus has the status of a Ter-"ritory, during the intermediate period from "its first settlement until it shall become a " State, been irrevocably fixed by the final deci-"ion of the Supreme Court." We withdraw all of our own definitions of modern Democracy, and accent Mr. Ballonam's. This, with the consequences which legitimately flow from it, covers the entire ground of the propaganda, and will in season—if not held in check by the Union also. It is the same doctrine avowed a few days since by Mr. Vice-President mination; the same that will be made the chief plank of the Charleston platform; and it is the same that the Democratic members of Congress from Illinois—understood at Washington as well as here to be speaking under the advice and authority of Mr. Douglas-avov ess to adopt, as well as to suppor the nominee of the Charleston Convention.

What do the honest and patriotic members ratic party in the Northwest say to this kind of Democracy? Can they longer adhers to an organization which has sunk itself into a mere tool of the slavery propagandists? Is that the entertainment to which they feel that they were invited? We ask them to read the Message, to carefully pender its dectrines, to note its departures from the teachings of Jefferson, Madison, and the other great lights of the Republic, and then determine what duty and patriosism demand of them in

On the third point, and which is the one of the greatest interest to the bar, I will fry and give the words of the Judge. Alluding to the case of Purgus vs. Hourd, 15 III, 357, and Gorton vs. Frizzell, 30 III, 291, which it was suggested were in condition, he said:

"The question was still a waved one, and was as perplexing to the Court as to the members of the bar; that the Supreme Court had not as yet seen its was clear to lay down a construction to the chause of the Constitution, and the statute in question which could be applied to every description of case that might arise under them. to the particular cases made before it from time to time." In regard to the affidavit in question, he said: "Some have contended that the affidavitor a ca. se, should show that the defend ant had property which he refused to turn out, that it should show it with the same certainty that would be, to specify the particular property which the defendant had; but is has been properly answered that this would make the law of no avail, as, if the affiant could point out the property of the defendant, he could levy upon the same properly, and bad no occasion to take the hade of the defendant he crusing is out to direful calamity is about to befall us jeveniles, and, ere the week closes, it will have taken place. Oh dear! how can I express to you the painful emotions that "send this aching breeks!" painful emotions that "rend this aching breast!"
Our skating is about to be broken up. Jow, you have heard of that great ferry-bost that went ashore on a disholoth. Well, she has come here to get elevated, and that old steam dradge up the South Branch has commenced breaking the ice for her to get up the North Branch and is spoiling our akating just as fast as she knows how, from Yan Buren street bridge all the way down the river. Now, Mr. Editor, I pretest against this invasion of our natural rights. It's precious little skating we get generally, and now that we have got a little, these Yardals want to break it up for us in the height of our habiday enjoyments. Now, set if our rights no avail, as, if the affiant could poiss out the property of the defendant, he could levy upon the same properly, and bad no consists to take the body of the defendant for refusing to turn it out. That, therefore, could not be held to be the true construction; but I regard it as necessary that the affidavit shall show, by a statement of facts, that the defendant has property which he refuses to turn out in satisfaction of the execution. These facts should be so stated that the Court may jadge whether the defendant has property. To illustrate. In this case it is admitted that Mactin was examined before Judge Barron on an application to achedule, and that the Judge refused to discharge him. Now, it undoubtedly appeared by that examination, that he had property which he failed to account for, though the particular property which he had was not made to appear. Such a case should be made in an affidavit for a cs. sc. The facts stated is the affidavit should be such as to convince the court that the defendant has property. These affidavits are made to the party himself or his agent, and the defendant is held in his statement, and if he has facts which should convince his mind that the defendant has property to satisfy his execution, had can set them out in his affidavil. The creditor should not be allowed to oppress his debtor, as a such a rule is required to prevent oppression. holiday enjoyments. Now, sir, if our rights are not to be protected, we will have the Union disselved, and the ice too—in the spring.

The arguments on which the Democracy in-end to rely in the Presidential campaign of 860, are being rapidly developed. The first in importance and in its anticipated effect, is the hrest to dissolve the Union, if the Democratic minee is not elected. "Take the govern dissolve the Union; exect our man, greater the federal offices, the foreign appointments and the collection and disbursement of the federal revenue, and the Union may stand."

The next argument consists of shreats of non-intercourse. "We will neither buy our

Another argument is the making of every post-master in the United States a censor of the press, as well as of all private correspondence passing through the mails, with unlimited power to suppress and destroy

Is no to be wondered at then, that some dealcrs with this permission before them, having a very choice wheat No 1 in every particular (except weighing 50 lbs to the measured bushel)
would avail themselves of the gracious permission of the Board of Trade to make it 'too

matter in it to bring it down to a point where it will go Just 66 lbs to the measured brishel and consequently No. 2, which would not be graded anything more if they had sent it is clean and in good condition? Now I will submit it to millers and grain dealers that are interested in encourcouraging the shipment of clean wheat to market, if it is not best to make cleanness and plumpness and not weight; the requirement

rain as 30., instead if dring as the preamble in the proceedings of the Board of Trade charges "mixing oats, rec, barley and mill screenings" with it, until it would just pass as No. 2. I shope your readers will pardon the homely manner I have adopted to tell some hone truths, but plainness and distinctness of statement. I think is test adapted to the case. In my rambles among grain dealers the past four months I have heard a great many complaints about the practical workings of the present inspection.

of power. They may, temporarily, exercity insight party which has given them had eminence, but they cannot warp the Democratic people into error. "After us the deluge," may be their rule of action, but they have associated with Hamograsey to little purpose if they believe that they can make the Democratic masses write their own epitaph—"Bied of heresy, instilled through the recreancy of those we have honored." The Democratic masses do not, nor will not, accept any such heresy. To say nothing of their honest convictions, the sound national policy of the opposite view, they are pleafed, as is Mr. Buchanan, to it. He has shown his contempt for Democratic principles and his own personal plotages—the Democratic propole will show their respect for their pledges, their sleadfast adherence to sound Democratic constitutional principles, and their contempt for Mr. Buchanan and his recreancy.

respondent of the N. Y. The population of Moshic (as that suburb is called where the foundries, of the Schilleriesi. The population of Meabit (as that suburb is called where the foundries, &c., are) gave loose rein to the mest bratal passions—appearing in such force as to overwer the police. Women were insulted and oditraged—"a some instances having their clothes unirely—and otherwise malireated, and during a portion of the evening of the 10th, certain parts of Berlin were made fit pictures of Pandemonium.—The mob undertook to dig up again the foundation of Schillers monument, which had been solemnly laid that day, and manifested throughout as little regard for the dead as the living.—Some incidents are grimly ludicrous. At one time, in the crowd, there rose a cry, "Hown with the black hats "and in an instant every man who wore a "beaver" felt it forcibly jammed over his face."

There were arrests made, and the matter is undergoing judicial investigation. Meanwhile the Berlin papers have got into a preity squabble as to who and what caused the disturbances. It seems there was money found upon the leaders, which they stated had been given to them by strange persons who incided them to the onlibrak. Some of the papers expressed their suspicion that the Areus-Zeibung party, the ultra-Catholies, were at the bottom of the whole affair. Whereupon that journal becomes virtuinily indignant, and demands legal proof or apology.

It as of has interest to outsiders how this question is settled; more important is the fact that a population exists in Berlin which could find its equal for savage, brustality, only in the

The Passess, under such conditions as they may deem expedient, to employ a sufficient military force to enter Mexice for the parpose of obtaining indemnity for the past and security for the future.

I purposaly refrain from any suggestion as to whether this force shall consist of regular troops on relanteers, or both. This question may be most appropriately, left to the decision of Congress. I would merely observe that, should volunteers be selected, such a force could be easily raised in this country among these ad powerful republic. It possesses an extentive territory, a fertile soil and an incalculable force of mineral wealth. She occupies an important position between the Gulf and the becam for transit routes and for commercia is it possible that such a country as this can be given up to anarchy and ruins without an effort from any quarter for its resoue and its safety? Wilf the commercial stations of the world, which have so many interests connected with it, remain wholly indifferent to such a remail? Can the United States, especially, which cought to share most largely in its commercial fintercourse, allow their immediate neighbor thus to destrey itself and injure them? Yet, without support from some quarter, it is impossible to perceive how Mexico can resume her position among nations and enter upon a circ rese which promines any good results. We have no change to goldeo in the money market since our last large. The payments of the first and fourth of January are of course large, but 180 has of ins apprehensions in regard to meeting them. The Marine Bark remitted yesterday to New York, some $90,000, to pay the sent-authoral interest on the city dob!. The tended days of the first in the season of the year is to accumulate a large amount of capital in New York, to pay the sent-authoral interest on the city dob!. The tended are of the sent-authoral interest on the city dob!. The tended days of the pay interest on State, railway and pther indebtedness. One of our linaboters, who is well posted in these matters. Foots up the sum to at least $30,000,000, all of which will be diabursed during the next week. The effect can searchly fall be be greater case in the money market.

Exchange is in fair demand, but it begins to be upraised that it will be weaker, if not lower, before the close of next week. The bankers continue to take freely staty, days pork and produced bills on New York, but local paper is kept.
